

Barn Conversion

The barn will be converted to more general use by pouring a concrete floor and finishing the upper level with a stairway. The barn is a good solid structure with a concrete foundation. Once heated in the winter by 45 degree water flowing from the springs, it is plumbed and takes advantage of geothermal heating. With these modifications, we believe the barn will be much more useful and helpful to achieve conservation and education purposes.

Photo 1—
The
exterior
view of barn.

Photo 2—
Interior
view
where modificati ons will make the barn
more useful for education
and social gatherings

•